Details

An Exceptional Private Estate in a World-Class Setting Ginger Lily House is a relatively newly constructed, contemporary tropical estate set within the prestigious enclave of Baie de Sucre, occupying a commanding ridge-top position on the southern coastline of Bequia. Designed to the highest standards of luxury and sustainability, the property combines panoramic ocean views, refined architecture, and complete privacy within one of the Grenadines' most ambitious resort destinations. Spanning approximately one acre of private landscaped grounds, Ginger Lily House offers the scale, elevation, and quality rarely found in Caribbean residential properties.
