

Isle de Ronde

Grenada

Details

Just five miles north of Grenada lies Isle de Ronde, one of the Caribbean's most captivating private islands. A landscape of rolling hills, hidden valleys, and pristine bays gives way to white-sand beaches and turquoise waters. The island even boasts a natural swim-through cave, adding a touch of adventure to its serene beauty. From this central vantage point, the Caribbean unfolds in every direction – 27 miles to the Tobago Cays, 47 miles to Mustique, 68 miles to St Vincent, and 140 miles to Barbados – making Isle de Ronde both secluded and superbly connected.
